24	The Court has determined that each plaintiff should proceed separately on his own claim
25	in separate cases. The Federal Rules of Civil Procedure provide that "[o]n motion or on its own,

In the instant action, Plaintiffs are individuals in the custody of the California Department of Corrections and Rehabilitation, presently confined at Wasco State Prison, in Wasco, California. In this Court's experience, an action brought by multiple inmate plaintiffs proceeding pro se presents procedural problems that cause delay and confusion. Delay often arises from the frequent transfer of inmates to other facilities or institutions, the changes in address that occur when inmates are released to parole, and the difficulties faced by inmates who attempt to communicate with each other and with unincarcerated individuals.

Accordingly, the Court will order that Plaintiffs' claims be severed. Plaintiff Ricky L. Thomas will proceed in this action, while the remaining plaintiffs will proceed in separate civil actions to be opened by the Clerk of the Court. Each plaintiff will proceed with his own action and his own case number, and will be solely responsible for his own action.

The Clerk of the Court will be directed to randomly assign the new actions to a Magistrate Judge according to the Court's usual assignment of civil cases.

While Plaintiffs Ricky L. Thomas, Terrence Dunson, Michael Green, and Charles Miller have submitted applications to proceed in forma pauperis, the remaining plaintiffs have not paid the $402.00 filing fee or submitted applications to proceed in forma pauperis pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915.

Finally, the Court is required to screen complaints brought by prisoners seeking relief against a governmental entity and/or against an officer or employee of a governmental entity. 28 U.S.C. § 1915A(a). The Court notes that the signature on the complaint does not appear to match the signature of any of the named plaintiffs. (See ECF No. 1, p. 25.) Both the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and this Court's Local Rules require that all filed pleadings, motions and papers be signed by at least one attorney of record or by the party personally if the party is unrepresented. Fed. R. Civ. P. 11(a); Local Rule 131(b). As the complaint is not signed by any party, the Court must strike it from the record. Each Plaintiff will be permitted an opportunity to file a signed complaint (personally signed by that individual plaintiff) that complies with the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure and the Local Rules.

Based on the foregoing, IT IS HEREBY ORDERED as follows:

1 The complaint, filed March 28, 2023, (ECF No. 1), is STRICKEN for lack of signature; 2 2. The claims of Plaintiff Ricky L.
